Robert Bickers is the Professor of History at the University of Bristol and the author of the much-praised Empire Made Me. In this book he tells the epic story of the opening up of China to the West in the nineteenth century from both the European and the Chinese point of view. The blurb says: "highly original and brilliantly written, The Scramble for China ranges from the Qing palaces of Peking to the tiniest, most desolate colonial treaty port, from the great city of Shanghai to the strange isolation of the new European-staffed lighthouses that sprang up along China's coast."
