Excerpt: . . . as many as two hundred deer have been killed in these and the adjacent woods of Sandwich during a single year, and not a season passes that sportsmen or sojourners do not see specimens of this nohle game in these locations. Bkirting the lakes and ponds and winding over and among the hills, innumerable roads thread, well-defined and hardened by the usage of nearly three centuries, and affording the most beautiful drive-ways imaginable. Delightful ocean views are obtained from the summits of hill-tops extending for miles inland, and outlooks over fair sections of hill and dale, with water-bits shimmering and glistening in the picture, so beautiful that sometimes the original Indian occupants of the land bestowed their most musically descriptive names to designate the sections or localities. Springs of purest water abound and bubble over on every side, often proving the sources of the...
