AMERICAN DESIGN

Museum of Modern Art. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, American Design, Russell Flinchum, American design, like much of American culture, perennially oscillates between populism and elitism, between the revolutionary beauty and availability of Tupperware and the elusive exclusivity of Tiffany's. This book traces the development of American design from the "armory practice" of early American machinists through mid-century "design for modern living" to the branded, consumer-oriented design of the present day, including work by Charles and Ray...
