Kogan Page Limited/Viva Books, 2011. Softcover. Book Condition: New. First edition. While it is becoming increasingly common for contracts to be awarded through formal procurement processes, smaller businesses could be missing out. But with the right skills and confidence, there's no reason not to take advantage of this potentially lucrative route to market. Bid Management is a no-nonsense, practical guide that will teach the reader how to think like a professional bid manager. It covers the basics of how to find opportunities, understanding the rules of the game and how to get to know customers. It also gives essential advice on: how to compete with other bidders presenting a deliverable and profitable bid project managing a bid working out a winning pricing strategy using the final presentation to clinch the deal With an insightful interview with the Director behind the London 2012 Olympic bid, Bid Management uncovers the myths of bidding and teaches all the skills you need to win new clients and retain existing ones through formal tender processes. Contents: Part 1: Understanding today's task ? bid management ? Why do I need to bid ? Bid myths ? truth or fiction? ? Where to look for bidding opportunities ? Skills analysis ? what it takes to win a bid ? Part 2: Pre-qualification and the decision to bid ? Expressing interest and submitting a pre-qualification questionnaire ? Factors that should affect your decision to bid ? Weighing it all up and making the big decision ? Part 3: Keeping on track: where to start and how to finish ? Getting started on your bid ?
