CHAPTER X BOMBING AND PHOTOGRAPHY The following bombing will be carried out by No. --Squadron at night (10 P. m. , 12 midnight, and 2 A. m. ). At each of these times three machines will bomb respectively P, O, H. Thus the Operation Orders one evening in France. Quite ordinary orders too, for bombing is carried out day and night incessantly--by day with the object of damaging material, by night chiefly to annoy the Hun and have a bad effect on his moral. Bombing by night is usually carried out on towns and villages known to be resting-places of the German troops, and it is part of the work of the R. F. C. to see that the Hun never rests. Fritz after a hard spell in the trenches is withdrawn to some shell-torn village behind his lines to rest. He enters the...
