Not illustrated. 1869 Excerpt: .Registration of On the formation of a department for the registration of assurances in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies, the North-Western Provinces, Punjab, and the Central Provinces, considerable reductions, generally, were made in the scale of charge which had been submitted to the Government of India, and the expenditure for this department is kept within its receipts. Jail8. In the jails the strength of fixed and contingent guards has been revised and in general reduced, the measure being assisted by the substitution of convict for paid warders to a limited extent, yet with a considerable saving. Reductions of this kind are still being carried out gradually by the Local Governments, whose attention has been drawn to the heavy expense of guarding jails. The cost of general revisions of iail establishments in the Bombay Expendi - TUEE. Presidency and in British Burmah has also been reduced considerably below that which was originally proposed. The police in Bengal, the North-Western Pro-roioe. vinces, and the Bombay Presidency, and the mounted police in the Central Provinces, have been reduced in strength. In Bengal the high pay which had been allowed for certain grades of the police has been cut down at a considerable saving of expense, and a proposition for a costly scheme of police schools has been negatived. In the North-Western Provinces the reduction in strength led to a considerable saving in cost. In the Bombay Presidency there has been much of similar saving; but on the other hand...
