CHAPTER XXVI CLIMATE--LEAVING BOSNIA Best time to visit Bosnia--Resorts for summer--Severe winter--Summary of our weather experiences--Best times for Dalmatia, Montenegro, and the Hercegovina--A good winter resort--A good land route--Best day to travel--Train accommodation--Poor buffets--Zenica--Vranduk--River gorges--A fire--Maglaj--The castle of Doboje--Agram--Its sights--Croatian peasant costumes--Back to the Kant--A snow country. BOSNIA has practically only two seasons, like South Africa--a summer and a winter season, but of course at the usual times of the year instead of being reversed. When one ends the other commences. There is scarcely any period of transition as in England. One jumps from summer into winter, and the reverse. The best time to visit Bosnia is between May and October, the summer season, though speaking of the country as a place of residence it must be said it has a good climate all the year round, certainly a better one than its...

Reviews

Good e book and valuable one. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. You are going to like how the article writer publish this publication.
