His appearances in the ministry were for a long time small, and not frequent, his mind being covered with a fear and dread lest he should shoot out into branches, and not truly know an establishment in the root of immortal life. He kept much at home, except attending his own yearly meeting, and some neighbouring meetings in Virginia, and also travelling on foot in religious visits to some places in North Carolina. Being faithful in the little, his qualification for further services became enlarged, and feeling a religious concern to visit the meetings of friends in the northern and eastern states, he opened the same to his friends, and in the third month, 1797, obtained certificates of their unity, from the monthly and quarterly meetings of which he was a member.
