Ever remembering, that whoredom takes away the heart; that is, it makes men regardless of what must come hereafter; so that they very often fee not their danger, until they feel it without remedy. 2. What is the duty of married persons? A. To live peaceably together; remembering that marriage was ordained of God, for the mutual help and comfort which the one ought to have of the other. And therefore they have both of them vowed before God, The husband, to love, to comfort, to honour, and to keep his wife. The wife, to obey, to serve, to love, and to honour her husband, as long as they both Jhall live. Which vows are as facred as can be made, and are here set down, that they may be often...
