They do not think that it will be necessary for. the person so selected to remain in the States for more than a few weeks, if he should be able to remain, to arrive there about the time of the reopening of the courts, and if some progress can be made in the preliminary arrangements before his arrival. The committee have very carefully considered your observations as to the personnel of the receivership, and they appreciate the considerations which lead you to make the offer of resigning the receivership, if the committee should think it desirable that you should do so. The committee desire me to say that they feel it to be due to you, having regard to your arrangements and engagements for the future, that no unnecessary delay shall take place on their part in determining whether the...
