A Group Seeking a Renewal. A Final chance For a comeback. The gospel singing group Living Praise has had a relatively successful career. They have sung a few gospel songs that have become standards. They had a song even hit the pop charts ten years ago. Today though, they are in a lull and are looking for the key to reviving their career. BUT Minister Tommy Settles, one of the anchors of the group, is falling apart. He can no longer reach the notes on even their signature song that he used to hit and his voice cracks every time he sings. And on top of it all, he is becoming harder to work with. Can Tommy and Living Praise get back to their glory days? Will They work through the issues that have stood in their way? Can God work a revival in and through this group?.
