Anthony Thomas. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Anthony Thomas (illustrator). Paperback. 160 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.3in. x 0.4in. INTRODUCTION Based on a childs account of her bizarre discovery of a blue container in a small room under the spiral stairs at her home, with her sisters birth date and a file number writer on it. Her sister Toni that she hasnt seen, heard from or heard much about in over four years. The door leading to the space was dubbed The 5th door because of the label left on it by the builder of her home. It was left on the door for days as they unpacked, cleaned and organized their new home. The strange thing was, they tried figuring out why it was labelled the 5th door just for fun, and it made no sense at all to them. It didnt matter what logical order the doors were counted in, this door just didnt fall in that position. It may have been labelled for another home but the mysterious number encouraged the naming of the door that became an inside family joke, and over the years they actually referred to it as the fifth door. The contents of the room guarded by the fifth door were out of sight and out of mind to everyone until curious twelve year old Danielle became lethargic half way through her dads request to pack away her suitcases in the storage room in the basement. She instead went to the small space that served as refuge for several plastic storage containers the size of laundry baskets, but covered and without the vertical slots that allows the dirty laundry to breath. A total of eight containers, each filled with documents, all sorts of documents, CDs, diaries, binders and tons of photos were among the items....
