Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Suggestions for School and Home Projects in Agriculture As agricultural subjects are finding their way into the curricula of secondary schools, teachers are confronted with various problems in connection therewith. The successful conduct of laboratory work is one of the most perplexing of these. In the development of agricultural courses both teachers and pupils are turning to home gardens, fields, farm buildings, herds and flocks for their material for practice work. There only, the great laboratory of agriculture is to be found. The work in this laboratory has frequently been termed Home Projects, - probably because it is not carried on within the walls of the schoolroom. Various reasons are given why Home Projects are of great importance in the study of elementary and secondary agriculture. It is for the purpose of outlining some of these reasons, indicating the scope and character of this work and suggesting methods whereby these practical projects may be conducted, that this bulletin has been prepared. Interest - the vital factor of successful teaching, is developed to a high degree...
